BUSHIDO JAPAN

Nagoya · Central Japan

Experience design and land operation for inbound travel

I teach Japanese archery. That is the whole company.

Thirty years of kyudo. Fourth dan. I teach in a real dojo, six days a month — not because demand is low, but because that is the number of days I can teach and still train myself.

Everything else we build sits on top of that one fact. It is also why this cannot be copied: the constraint is not money, it is an instructor who trains.

WHAT WE DO

Cultural experiences	Kyudo (Japanese archery) · yabusame (horseback archery) · calligraphy · tea ceremony · zen · Arimatsu indigo · pottery · sushi · Nagoya coffee culture · sea fishing
Itineraries	Half-day, full-day, 2-day and 3-day programmes — built to slot into the routes you already sell
Land operation	Guides, transport, restaurants, accommodation, prayer-space mapping, on-the-day operation
Markets served	FIT · luxury · educational · MICE and incentive · Muslim-friendly (SALAAM JAPAN)

WHY NAGOYA IS NOT A DETOUR

Nagoya sits on the Tokyo–Kyoto line. Your clients lose no travel time. They gain a day of Japan that is not crowded, at a lower cost than Kyoto in peak season.

THREE THINGS THAT MAKE US DIFFERENT

1. The product is a person, not a booking. We do not buy our experiences from a wholesaler. I teach the archery. The calligraphy master is someone I train with.

2. One contact, not five suppliers. I chair the Nagoya Inbound Summit — 100+ hotels, restaurants, craft studios and operators across Aichi, Gifu and Mie — and we are a member of the Nagoya Convention & Visitors Bureau.

For transport we work with Shachi Bus. Say "thirty students, four days, March" and you get one quote, not five.

3. Nagoya first — but not only Nagoya. We operate from a Nagoya base into Gifu, Mie, Nagano and Hokuriku, and we arrange nationally where a client's route requires it.

制作メモ (印刷しない)

この1枚の設計意図

- 1行目で「何者か」が終わる。"I teach Japanese archery. That is the whole company." — 20分の冒頭1分で伝えるべきことを、紙の1行目に置いてある
- 商品を並べていない。並べると「体験の店」に見える。並べるのはカタログ(02)の役割
- HOW WE TRADE を大きく取っている。バイヤーが持ち帰って社内を通すとき、必要なのはここ。ストーリーではない
- 写真1点だけ。複数入れると観光パンフレットに見える
