

I teach Japanese archery. That is the whole company.

Thirty years of kyudo. Fourth dan. I teach in a real dojo, six days a month — not because demand is low, but because that is the number of days I can teach and still train myself. Everything else we build sits on top of that one fact. It is also why this cannot be copied: the constraint is not money, it is an instructor who trains.

[IMAGE — BUSHIDO_弓道体験_構え.jpg]

What we do

Experiences	Kyudo · yabusame (horseback archery) · calligraphy · tea ceremony · zen & etiquette · Arimatsu indigo · pottery · sushi · Nagoya coffee culture · sea fishing
Itineraries	Half-day, full-day, 2-day and 3-day programmes — built to slot into routes you already sell
Land operation	Guides, transport, restaurants, accommodation, prayer-space mapping, on-the-day operation
Markets	FIT · luxury · educational · MICE & incentive · Muslim-friendly (SALAAM JAPAN)

Three things that make us different

1. The product is a person

We do not buy our experiences from a wholesaler. I teach the archery. The calligraphy master is someone I train with.

2. One contact, not five suppliers

I chair the Nagoya Inbound Summit — 100+ operators across Aichi, Gifu and Mie — and we are a member of the Nagoya Convention & Visitors Bureau. For transport we work with Shachi Bus.

3. Nagoya is not a detour

It sits on the Tokyo–Kyoto line. Your clients lose no travel time — and gain a day of Japan that is not crowded, at lower cost than Kyoto in peak season.

Nagoya first — but not only Nagoya. We operate from a Nagoya base into Gifu, Mie, Nagano and Hokuriku, and arrange nationally where a client's route requires it.

How we trade

Commission — 15% on commissionable products. Net shown beside retail on every quote.

Turnaround — 24 hours. Quote held — 14 days.

Lead time — 14 days standard · 30 days for groups over 20 · 60 days for yabusame.

Group size — 1 to 100. Private programmes from 2, no single supplement.

Language — English throughout. Chinese interpretation arranged.

Weather — indoor programmes run regardless. Yabusame and sea fishing postponed, notified 24 h ahead.

Cancellation — free to 8 days · 30% at 7–4 · 50% at 3–1 · 100% on the day. Pre-committed costs pass at actual cost, disclosed before you confirm.

Booking — e-mail. Confirmation and invoice within 24 hours. Card link available.

Customisation — every itinerary is built to order. There is no fixed catalogue you must buy from.

The vehicle is the only variable. Everything we teach or supply is fixed, peak season included. Coaches are quoted against your dates and routing rather than a flat daily rate — and we hold a vehicle against that quote.